Please Note: Special Assistance Dogs Only Are Permitted. We ask that you put in writing requesting permission, addressed to the chairman of the committee. The handler is responsible for the care and supervision of his or her service animal and must be always kept on a leash. If a service dog behaves in an unacceptable way and the person does not control the animal or the animal is considered a direct threat to the health and safety of others, we retain the right to ask that the dog be removed. Special Assistance Dog Owners are responsible for cleaning up their dog's fouling. staff members may seek clarification that the animal is a trained Service Dog, before admittance to the walking track or building is allowed.
